Why you need a program built on precision health insights

Imagine being able to proactively support your own health with a full-service solution designed to help reduce barriers you may face with cancer management and adverse drug events. Advantage DNA is a personalized program, designed to help save lives, that combines Chubb insurance benefits with Kadance's precision health services.

With Advantage DNA, you gain access to precision health insights — no matter where you are or what health plan you have. This gives you a medication optimization plan tailored specifically for you and access to the latest advances in cancer care — services not typically covered by major medical plans.
